1. Purpose

This Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) outlines RSL NSW Board Election Procedures. It does not set out the procedure for the appointment of those RSL NSW Board Members who are Independent Directors. The procedure for the appointment of Independent Directors is set out in the Constitution.

Unless otherwise stated in Section 9 of this SOP, capitalised terms used in this SOP have the meaning set out Appendix A of the Constitution.

The 2020 Election, is the first Board Election under the RSL NSW Act 2018 (NSW) (Act) and the RSL NSW Constitution (effective 1 December 2019) (Constitution). In order to accommodate the difficulties associated with the Covid-19 Pandemic, for the purposes of the 2020 Election, Annexure B forms part of this SOP. Annexure B includes the 2020 Nominations form and Project Plan. It has been adopted so that the 2020 Election can progress as required by the Act and the Constitution and to the extent of any inconsistency in this SOP, Annexure B prevails. RSL NSW may wish to revise this SOP following the 2020 Board Election in accordance with the Constitution.

2. Background

The RSL NSW Board Elected Directors are elected under the Constitution by Service Members. Elections are by secret ballot which may include ballot by electronic means.

The term of office for successful candidates will commence at the rising of that Annual General Meeting at which the result of the election is declared (Election Date). Candidates will hold office until the next Election Date, or until they otherwise cease to hold office pursuant to the law or the Constitution.

If a Director ceases to hold office pursuant to the law or the Constitution, a casual vacancy will be created which, at the discretion of the Board, may be filled in accordance with the Constitution.

3. Returning Officer – Powers and Duties

A Returning Officer will be appointed by the Board to conduct each election in accordance with this SOP.

The Returning Officer must not be an office holder or employee of RSL NSW, including of ANZAC House (State Branch), any sub-Branch or subsidiary.

The Returning Officer is responsible for:

- a) preparing and circulating a notice calling for nominations;
- b) accepting all nominations which satisfy the requirements of this Election SOP and rejecting those that do not comply with Sections 6.2 and 6.3.
- c) handling any defective nominations in accordance with Section 6.4.
- d) where a ballot is required, conducting the ballot for the positions of President as well as for Elected Directors; and notwithstanding anything else contained in this Election SOP, taking such action and giving such directions as they consider necessary, including but not limited to making void a step already taken in the election, to ensure the integrity of the ballot, and to prevent or remedy an irregularity.

4. Register of Members

The only persons eligible to appear on the Register of Members in a ballot are those persons who, at the date of the close of the Register of Members (Close of Register), are financial Service Members as defined in Section 9.

The Close of Register is to occur no earlier than 28 days and no later than 7 days before the day on which nominations for the election open.

After the date and time appointed for the Close of Register, alterations to the Register of Members must be limited to the correction of errors, including such as the adding of persons who were inadvertently omitted from the Register of Members, or the deletion of persons who were inadvertently included on the Register of Members.

The Returning Officer will request the Company Secretary to supply the name and postal address of every Service Member eligible to vote at an election. The Returning Officer may also request the Company Secretary to supply additional information which does not form part of the Register of Members, but is to be used to ensure no irregularity occurs, and to supply the information in electronic form. The Company Secretary must comply with such a request.

The Company Secretary must take all reasonable steps to ensure the listings supplied to the Returning Officer contain, where practicable, each eligible Service Member's residential or other postal address.

5. Call for Candidate Nominations

5.1. Form of Publication

The Returning Officer will cause a call for nominations to be published by some combination of the following, as deemed suitable and cost effective by the Board:

- a) on the RSL NSW website; or
- b) in an edition of "Reveille" and circulated to all members, directly to the member's known postal address; or
- c) via an official Member Newsletter.

5.2. Timing of Publication

The call for nominations must be published no earlier than four (4) months and no later than three (3) months and seven (7) days before the date of the Annual General Meeting in an Election Year.

5.3. Content of Call for Nominations

The call for nominations must:

- a) state that the election is being conducted by the Returning Officer;
- b) provide the contact details of the Returning Officer;
- c) invite nomination for election from all eligible persons;
- d) state the time and date for the opening and closing of nominations;
- e) state the time and date for the opening and closing of the ballot;
- f) specify where nomination forms may be obtained;

- g) specify the process for lodgement of nominations;
- h) state a time and date for withdrawal of nominations; and
- i) specify other documentation required to be submitted with the nomination (for example, contact details and signatures of two (2) financial Service Member nominators, the statutory declaration referred to in clause 6.3 below and the Candidate Statement referred to in clause 6.6 below).

6. Nominations

6.1. Timetable

Nominations for candidates will open three (3) months before the date of the Annual General Meeting in an Election Year.

Nominations close at 12.00 Noon on the twenty-eighth day after nominations have opened. Nominations received by the Returning Officer after that time will not be accepted.

If any of the above dates fall on a weekend or a public holiday, the relevant day will be the next business day after that date.

Nominations will be called for in the manner prescribed in section 5 above.

6.2. Eligibility to Nominate

The eligibility requirements to nominate for election as an Elected Director are set out in the Constitution and declared in item 5 of the Statutory Declaration in Section 10 of this SOP.

6.3. Nomination Lodgement Criteria

Nominations lodged with the Returning Officer must be on the Nomination Form specified, and be accompanied by a statutory declaration made by the candidate in the form set out in Section 10 of this SOP.

The completed Nomination Form and statutory declaration may be sent by post, by email or hand delivered to the Returning Officer and must be accompanied with the following information:

- a) full name and, if different, the form in which their name is to appear on a ballot paper;
- b) sub-Branch;
- c) occupation;
- d) the relevant qualifications and skills set that the candidate will bring to the Board, if elected;
- e) prior and current experience as a director;
- f) RSL NSW service and offices held;
- g) the date first elected, if standing for re-election;
- h) contact details including residential address;
- i) the signed endorsement of their nomination by two (2) financial Service Members as at Close of Register (including the name, sub-Branch, member number and home address of each).

6.4. Defective Nominations

Where the Returning Officer finds that a nomination is, or may be, defective, the Returning Officer will, before rejecting the nomination, notify the prospective candidate of the defect and, where practicable, give them the opportunity to remedy the defect or provide further information in support of the nomination, within a reasonable period prescribed by the Returning Officer after being notified. This remedy, or the provision of further information must be resolved (where practicable) prior to the Close of Nominations.

Where the Returning Officer has notified a prospective candidate of a defective nomination, and where that person has remedied the defect and advised the Returning Officer within the time prescribed by the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer will accept the nomination.

Where the Returning Officer has notified a prospective candidate of a nomination defect, and where that person has not corrected the defect and advised the Returning Officer within the time prescribed by the Returning Officer, the nomination will be rejected.

6.5. Withdrawal of Nominations

A prospective candidate, or an authorised representative of a deceased candidate, may withdraw their nomination by notice in writing to the Returning Officer up to, but not later than, the Close of Nominations.

If, after the close of nominations and before the declaration of the result of the ballot, a candidate dies or is forced to withdraw due to ill health or hardship, notice will be provided to voting members of their withdrawal from the ballot and any votes received will not be counted.

6.6. Candidate Statements

Up to the close of Nominations, a candidate may submit to the Returning Officer a biography and/or a statement in support of their candidature only (Candidate Statement), for inclusion in the Member Voting Pack and on the RSL NSW website.

A candidate can only submit one statement and that statement will not exceed 200 words. The candidate's details are excluded from the 200 word limit.

The Returning Officer will reject any statement:

- a) which, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, is false or misleading or may lead to an irregularity; or
- b) which does not comply with these Election Rules or the Constitution.

A candidate whose statement is rejected will be notified and will be given a reasonable period of time (being not more than 48 hours) to supply a replacement statement that complies with these Election Rules.

The order of publication of candidates' statements will be the same order as candidates' names on the ballot paper. The Returning Officer will also indicate if a candidate has failed to submit a valid statement in accordance with Section 6.6.

7. Member Voting

7.1. Manner of Voting

Members can vote using one of the following means:

- a) by returning a postal ballot; or
- b) by completing an online vote.

7.2. Voting Information Pack

All Members will receive a voting information pack online or by post, containing:

- a) Two (2) ballot papers to be completed as follows:
 - I. One ballot paper to vote for the candidate of your choice for the vacant position of President; and
 - II. One ballot paper to vote for the candidates of your choice for the vacant positions of Elected Director.
- b) Candidate Statements; and
- c) Business reply envelope (postal votes only).

The number of vacant Elected Director positions will be advised on the Ballot Paper. Voting instructions must be followed by placing a cross or tick in the box of the candidates of your choice.

Service Members who receive RSL NSW communications online, will also receive voting information packs online.

7.3. Ballot Paper Information

All postal and online ballot papers must include the following:

- a) the name and logo of RSL NSW;
- b) the words "Ballot paper for the (year) election of the Board of RSL NSW by all Service Members";
- c) instructions for marking the ballot paper, including the number of candidates that must be voted for;
- d) the names of the candidates in the format and order required by these Election Rules, with a hollow square beside each;
- e) instructions for returning the ballot paper, including the date for the close of voting;
- f) the name and contact details of the Returning Officer; and
- g) any other instruction considered necessary by the Returning Officer.

7.4. Preparation of Ballot Papers

The Returning Officer will prepare two ballot papers; one for the position of the President and the other for the positions of Elected Director. Where a candidate nominates to stand for both President and Elected Director, they will appear on both ballot papers and their name will be identified with a symbol, different to the asterisk that denotes the retiring directors eligible for re-election.

The order of names on each ballot paper will be determined by the Returning Officer by the drawing of lots, as soon as practicable after the close of nominations and the validation of eligibility is conducted.

The ballot papers will contain the names of the candidates with the surname first, followed by the given names. No other candidate information will be printed on the ballot paper, except as provided in this clause 7.4.

7.5. Printing and Distribution of Ballot Papers

The Returning Officer will arrange for the printing and distribution of ballot papers to members eligible to vote, either by RSL NSW or an external provider.

On or before the opening day of the ballot the Returning Officer will forward voting material to each person on the Register of Members at their address as shown on the Register of Members.

7.6. Replacement ballot material

Where a member whose name is on the Register of Members claims that the ballot material has not been received or has been lost, destroyed or spoiled, the member may make an application to the Returning Officer for the issue of replacement ballot material. The application will

- a) be in writing;
- b) set out the applicant's full name and postal address;
- c) set out the grounds on which the application is made;
- d) contain a declaration that the applicant has not voted in the ballot; and
- e) be accompanied, if practicable, by any evidence that is available of the loss, destruction or spoiling of the ballot material.

If the Returning Officer is satisfied that the information contained in the application is true and correct, the Returning Officer will issue replacement ballot material to the applicant.

7.7. Postal ballot postal facilities

The Returning Officer will, for the purpose of receiving completed ballot papers, use a private box or other secure postal facility at a post office or mail centre. Access to this private box will be limited to:

- a) the Returning Officer;
- b) persons authorised in writing by the Returning Officer; and
- c) persons authorised by Australia Post.

7.8. Online voting

The Returning Officer will, for the purpose of receiving secure online ballots, set up a secure voting portal to receive members' online votes. Access to this portal will be determined by the Returning Officer and will include the following:

- a) clear instructions how to lodge a vote online;
- b) the online ballot; and
- c) the Candidate Statements and relevant information to enable members to vote.

7.9. Absent voting

Absentee voting is not permitted under these Election Rules, notwithstanding that a member may be eligible to vote at any election held under these Election Rules.

7.10. Voting Period

Voting will open six weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting in an Election Year.

The ballot will close at 12 noon on the twenty-eighth day after the day that the ballot opened. Votes received by the Returning Officer after that time will not be included in the scrutiny.

If any of the above dates fall on a weekend or a public holiday, the relevant day will be the next working day after that date.

7.11. Voting system

The ballot will be conducted under a first past the post system as follows:

- a) The method of voting will be by placing a tick or cross in the square next to the names of the candidate(s) for whom the voter wishes to vote.
- b) Voters may complete a maximum of two ballot papers as follows:
 - I. One for the required number of candidates nominating for the position of Elected Director; and
 - II. One for a candidate nominating for the position of President.
- c) The candidates with the highest number of votes will be elected.
- d) If two or more candidates for the position of President each receive the same number of votes, the Returning Officer will decide by the drawing of lots.
- e) If in the ballot for Elected Directors for the final position, two or more candidates receive the same number of votes, the Returning Officer will decide by the drawing of lots.
- f) A ballot paper will be informal if marked other than in accordance with these Election Rules, including if the voter has voted for more or fewer candidates than instructed.

7.12. Uncontested elections

If only one valid nomination for the position of President is received, the Returning Officer will declare elected the person nominated.

If, after the ballot for the position of President has been declared, and the number of valid nominations received is less than the number of Elected Director positions to be filled, the Returning Officer will declare elected the persons nominated.

Any unfilled positions will be declared casual vacancies and will be filled in accordance with the clauses 9.23 and 9.24 of the Constitution.

7.13. Contested ballots

If more than one valid nomination is received for the position of President, the Returning Officer will conduct a secret ballot in accordance with this SOP of those members entitled to vote.

If the number of valid nominations received for the positions of Elected Director exceeds the number of positions to be filled, the Returning Officer will conduct a secret ballot in accordance with this SOP of members those entitled to vote.

The Returning Officer will conduct the ballot for the position of President before conducting the ballot for the positions of Elected Director.

Where there are not enough candidates standing for the positions of Elected Director, the Returning Officer will conduct the ballot for the position of President, the remaining candidates will be taken as elected as Elected Directors and any unfilled positions will be taken as casual vacancies.

8. Declaration of results

The Returning Officer will declare the result of the election, to the Company Secretary, within fourteen days of the closing day of the ballot by giving notice of the result in writing.

The Returning Officer will provide to the Company Secretary the following information in relation to the ballot:

- a) the total number of persons on the Register of Members;
- b) the total number of ballot papers issued;
- c) the total number of ballot papers received by the Returning Officer; and
- d) the total number of ballot papers rejected as informal.

The results will be announced first to the successful and unsuccessful candidates, by the Returning Officer, before being announced to members via an official RSL NSW communication sent to the DPC, DC's, sub-Branches and known member email addresses.

The results will also be announced at the next RSL NSW State Congress.

9. Definitions

Thank you for submitting your nomination for election to the RSL NSW Board. This form provides you with the information you need to make your submission. Before you start completing this Nomination Form, you should carefully read the RSL NSW Election Information Pack (Information Pack) which accompanies this Nomination Form.

RSL NSW has appointed Link Market Services as the independent third party to conduct the 2020 Election and to act as the Returning Officer for the Election (Returning Officer). The purpose of an independent third-party Returning Officer is so that the Election can be conducted with the highest levels of probity, independence and integrity.

This form is broken into:

- SECTION 1. Background Information
- SECTION 2. Instructions
- SECTION 3. Important Milestones and Dates
- SECTION 4. Eligibility to be an Elected Director
- SECTION 5. Candidate Information
- SECTION 6. Information for Publication in the Election Material

SECTION 1. Background Information

RSL NSW is a charity that has supported NSW veterans and their families for over 100 years. It is a grassroots organisation, led by its members and volunteers. The strong connections between sub-Branches and their local communities underpin every aspect of the RSL NSW's work for veterans and their families.

The RSL NSW Act 2018 (NSW) states that the RSL NSW Board is to consist of at least three but not more than 10 Directors. The current Board is comprised of nine Directors, two of which are independent Directors appointed by the Board pursuant to Section 5 of the RSL NSW Act.

The 2020 Election is seeking nominations for seven Member Elected Directors and the RSL NSW President. The elected President also serves as a Director bringing the total number of elected positions on the Board to eight.

You can find more detailed information about the current Board of RSL NSW by visiting the RSL NSW website on www.rslnsw.org.au/about-us/corporate-governance

SECTION 2. Instructions

2.1 Positions for nomination

Candidates can nominate for the following board positions:

1. President/Director;
2. Director

The RSL NSW "President" performs a dual role as the President as well as Director. The President is elected by the members in a separate ballot. Candidates intending to nominate to stand for the role of President should mark their intention in this Nomination Form. The candidate who successfully nominates for President will also become an elected Director.

Please note that if you are nominating for the position of President and you do not indicate your intention to also stand as a Director, you will only appear on the ballot for President (and vice versa).

2.2 National Police Certificate

Candidates are required to provide a National Police Certificate (NPC) with their nomination form.

The process for requesting an application for National Police Checks has been set out below for you. In the current COVID environment, Police NSW recommends that you allow a minimum of 10 working days from the date you submit your application request. Applications to request a NPC must be made online before persons can present to a NSW Police station to have the application confirmed.

1. Complete an online application form available at www.police.nsw.gov.au:
 - go to 'Online Services' and select the 'Criminal History Check' box;
 - select the 'Lodge Application for National Police Check' drop down and click on the link for 'Lodge an application for a National Police Check';
 - go to the bottom of the page and click on the 'Next' button which will take you to the online application form;
 - follow the instructions to complete the application form, which will ask you to provide details for three forms of identity as well as any previous names (this can be done in the box located at the right of the page; be sure to press the 'Add' button to include these in your application);
 - at the end of the online process record your Document ID number and print your confirmation page, which you will need to present at a NSW Police station.
2. Present your Document ID number (on the confirmation page) and the same three forms of identity you listed in your application to a NSW Police station.
3. Pay the appropriate fee* either online, by credit card, when you submit your application or at a police station. * the application fee is the responsibility of the candidate.

2.3 Closing date for nominations

Your correctly completed Nomination Form must be received by the Returning Officer by the deadline of 12.00pm (Sydney time) on Tuesday, 1 September 2020 at either of the following addresses:

- Email: rslnsw.returningofficer@linkmarketservices.com.au
- Post: Returning Officer, RSL NSW Election, PO Box 1508, SYDNEY SOUTH NSW 1234
- Link Market Services, Level 12, 680 George Street, SYDNEY NSW 2000

Please do not leave the submission of your nomination until the last minute. It is your responsibility to ensure that the following documents are received by the Returning Officer by, no later than 12.00pm on Tuesday 1 September, 2020:

- your correctly completed Nomination Form; and
- your National Police Check certificate; or
- the confirmation page for your NPC application request, signed by a representative from the NSW Police station where you presented for your identity check and your receipt.

Any incomplete, incorrect or late submission will not be accepted by the Returning Officer and your nomination will be invalid.

2.4 Confirmation of receipt of Nomination Form by Returning Officer

After you submit this Nomination Form, you will receive an email confirmation from the Returning Officer.

SECTION 3. Important Milestones and Dates

Milestone	Date	Details

Important Notes

By submitting this Nomination Form, you also acknowledge the following:

- If you do not consent to undertake the background checks or your identity or eligibility for office cannot be confirmed your candidacy will not be confirmed and your name will not appear on the ballot.
- The Directors of RSL NSW have a duty to provide such material information that is brought to their attention so as to fully and fairly inform members so that they are able to place an informed vote. This applies regardless of the source of the information. Accordingly, the Election Material and the RSL NSW website may contain any information about you in relation to or otherwise connected with your candidacy in the Board Election, even if that information has not been provided by you.
- If the Returning Officer is unable to verify any of the information you provided in this Nomination Form, this fact may be disclosed in the Election Material and on the RSL NSW website.

5.3 Nomination by at least 10 financial service members

Information for nominators

Candidates must be nominated by no fewer than 10 financial Service Members.

Nominators must be Service Members as at the official close of Register of Members, at at 12.00pm on 2 September, 2020.

If a person purporting to be a nominator is not a financial Service Member of RSL NSW at the Close of Nominations, their nomination will not count towards the required 10 Service Members. If a nominator is unsure of their membership status, they can contact the RSL NSW Support Unit on 1300 679 775 to confirm their membership status.

Nominators do not need to sign the same piece of paper. You may photocopy these pages as many times as you like or distribute as many copies as you need when collecting the signatures of your Nominees. The membership status of all Nominators is validated by the Returning Officer, so it is recommended that you provide more than 10 nominators as your nomination will not be confirmed if you fail to provide 10 valid nominators.

5.4 Nominators' details and declarations
